

Author Checklist

When submitting a manuscript, please review the following items and place a V in  in the appropriate text box and send it to the assistant administrator.

<General Guideline>

- This manuscript was written according to the research and publication ethics of Stress.
- The first and corresponding authors must be the members of the Korean Society of Stress Medicine.

<Manuscript Preparation>

Title page

- Title: in Korean and English
- Classification of first author and corresponding author
- Affiliation and position of each author in Korean and English (all author)
- ORCID of the first author and the corresponding author
- The contact information of corresponding author: address, phone number, fax number and E-mail address in Korean and English
- Conflicts of interest
- Funding

Abstract

- Korean abstract: 400 letters or less (including spaces)
- English abstract: 250 words or less
- Key words: three to five

Reference

- Check instructions to authors compliance and accuracy
- The number of references: 60 or less
- DOI and linkage confirmation

Tables and figures

- No more than six tables and figures in total
  - Describing abbreviations at the bottom of tables and figures
  - Unit display when using numbers
  - Numbers match results in manuscript
- Declare that all these things are confirmed.